Gentlemen: In reply to yours 3rd received on the ninth mailed in your favor on the eight - This Lincoln Medal is just exactly as you sent it, nothing was done to it. Kept in our safe until returned to you better wrapped and packed than you forwarded - it seems very strange to us - that five days should elapse before it is sent here. however the Medal is subject to your order and we will positively not keep it and on receipt of Return postage will forward it to you - and consider your insinuations as a piece of impudence, now dont waste any more time, we know what we are talking about. The Medal is same as received and even it would take a good magnifying Glass to show were it ever scratched

Yours
Robert Lincoln

Gentlemen,

we herewith return Lincoln Medal for mail - , you dont say anything regards the time but returning and mailing same? — — — — — we was this medal all this time! — we repeat again that medal is just as we received it. dont fear we will not trouble you again — you are so much of the Mud slinging kind — regards your insinuation of other dealers that is all bosh and talk that one of your firm seems to delight in —

Yours Resp
